Swiss WebCast with Sri Bhagavan

2013-10-26

1. Dear Bhagavan. Why are there so many people (in the west) that live alone and not in a relationship/partnership?

The accelerated change that is taking place all over the world is breaking up the system which we call society. As the system is breaking apart, the subsystem, which is the family is also breaking. That is why this things are happening. So what is responsible for this is the accelerated change that we are witnessing all over the world. And old is dying , and the new is taking birth. And we do not know what is the new. As the old breaks the families also break up. That is what we are witnessing right now.

2. How can the (swiss) individual help Switzerland to express the divine Idea?

If individuals transform, then the country changes. Because you are the country. So if more and more individuals transform themselves your society our country is going to change.

The subsystems if something happens there, the system will naturally change, and the system changes, it effects the subsystem. Similarly, the subsystem changes, it effects the system. So we are working on not transforming society, we are working on transforming the individual. As individuals change, society changes.

3. The outer life is getting more and more difficult; the difficulties seem to accelerate. What does help us, what do we need, when there are doubts and disbelieve?

Outer life is going to become more and more difficult, as also inner life. The easiest way out is to have the Devine in your life. If the Devine becomes your friend you will be able to face the crises very very easily. What is now most important is to get the Devine into your life

Dear Bhagavan: What is the biggest consolation, what can you tell me to comfort me, when I feel so bad and hopeless, that I do not forget about the source, the divine and I do not lose touch with the divine?

Once you get the Devine physically into your life, this question does not arise at all.

4. Can you tell us more about the dark night of the soul? So many people seem to get in touch with the dark night of the soul after awakening

The dark night of the soul through all the centuries has been a clear indication that you are rapidly growing on the spiritual path. So you should be really happy this happens to you and you do not have to worry it will go on and on. It lasts for a few months, and then it stops.

5. Dear Bhagavan, In one of the Darshans You mentioned that we all exist in several bodies at the same time on this planet. My question is, what happens if we meet one of those other bodies that are "us"? Thank you, all my gratitude and love

When you meet one of the other bodies, you feel completely one with it. You see no difference at all. It's a very very strange experience

6. Beloved Bhagavan why is it so important that the physical heart gets transformed, since all spiritual masters stress on the spiritual heart?

Only when the physical heart is transformed, does the spiritual heart flower. Without the physical heart undergoing those changes, you would not develop a spiritual heart. And only when the heart physically flowers, you get the feeling of connection with others, you discover unconditional love, you feel responsible, you feel very concerned and you care for all that is. So this is not something conceptual it's a living experience for which the physical heart has got to change; that happens after brain has changed. First the brain has got to change, and then the physical heart begins to change.

7. Dearest Bhagavan when my personal divine manifest, eats and lives with me: what does my friend, my spouse see? What should I tell them? Do I have to have one more bed for my personal divine? Do I have to cook for it, does it need clothes?

It all depends on you, what kind of relationship you have with your Devine. It is not that only you must cook all this, the Devine cook will cook for you, so what the Devine demands depends on your relationship with the Devine. Of course when your friends come home and they also see the Devine, what you tell them depends on you. You could tell them my friend is here.

Suppose you tell them the Devine is here, they might not believe you. So it depends upon you, your friends, ultimately the business is yours. You should not always think that the Devine be really demanding, not at all. The Devine also help you, in keeping your house clean, in cooking all that the Devine could do it depends upon what kind of relationship you're going to have. That's why we tell you, create your own god. God cannot be created but in the kind of relationship you have with god depends on you. Other the whole phenomenon would happen.

8. Dearest Bhagavan, how many people need to have a strong wish for a miracle so that it can actually happen? Is it enough when a single person has a strong wish for a miracle to make it happen?

It is good to have more people pray for a miracle. However, even if it is a single individual, who can pray strongly, then it's enough.

9. Dearest Bhagavan does in the golden age the existing society gets transformed or must the old first disappear in order to make space for the new one?

The old disappears. As the old begins to disappear the new one takes birth.

10. Beloved Bhagavan, in golden City we were told that there is the ancient mind. Does also a new mind exist or will it come into existance?

Right now, we are not talking of a new mind, we are talking about being free of the mind.

11. Dearest Bhagavan, when awakened we have more and more a deep connection with being in oneness. Why is it still so important to be in communion with others and to live in community?

If you live in a community, you will grow very very fast. It will be amazingly quick.

12. Beloved Sri Bhagavan, what is the better: to focus on enlightenment or to focus on god realization?

It is better to focus on enlightenment first, seeing the Devine physically and talking to your Devine physically is not god realization. There is much more to god realization than physically seeing and talking to your Devine. God realization is possible only if you are enlightened. Therefore you ought to first focus on enlightenment. If you do it on you own it is a long process. If the Devine comes physically into your life, it happens very very fast. Get the Devine first into your live and become enlightened, then go for God realization.

13. Dear Bhagavan

What is necessary to lift up the consciousness in Switzerland? - Is it the level of awakening of the Awakened ones or is it the number of the Awakened ones that is important ? Do we need 80 Awakened ones as the population of Switzerland is about 8 millions ? And on which level should the Awakened ones be?

Both are important. The number of people that are awakened and their levels of awakening. All this will be speed up very very fast once you start inviting the Devine physically into your lives.
